TIGER Parent Guide

1st Grade • 2026–2027 Scouting Year

Tigers are first graders. As with Lions, a parent or adult partner stays and takes part in every den meeting and outing.

Welcome to the Tiger year! First graders dig into teamwork, the outdoors, and the Scout Oath and Law. Activities are short, active, and hands-on. Your Tiger does most of the work at den and pack meetings, with a few items completed at home with you. This guide lays out the full year so you know what to expect.

How Your Scout Earns the Tiger Badge

To earn the Tiger rank badge, your Scout completes all 6 required adventures below, plus at least 2 elective adventures of their choosing. Most of this is done together as a den at meetings and pack events. Your den leader tracks progress and gives final sign-off.

The 6 Required Adventures

Adventure	What your Scout will work on	Where
Bobcat Character & Leadership	Meet the den, learn the Scout Oath and Law, the Cub Scout sign, salute, and handshake, and complete the child-protection booklet at home.	Home + Den
Tigers in the Wild Outdoors	Learn the Six Essentials and the Outdoor Code, take a 20-minute nature walk, and identify local animals and a helpful tree.	Den / Family
Tiger Bites Personal Fitness	Learn the five food groups, practice handwashing, get 30 minutes of activity, and build healthy sleep habits.	Den + Home
Team Tiger Citizenship	Play games with rules, learn to be a good teammate, take on a team job, and take part in a service project.	Den + Pack
Tiger's Roar Personal Safety	Watch the Protect Yourself Rules video and practice "Shout, Run, Tell," calling for help, and what to do if lost.	Home
Tiger Circles Family & Reverence	Talk about your family's faith traditions, attend a service or gathering, and carry out an act of kindness.	Family

Family & Reverence note: this adventure can also be earned by completing the religious emblem of your family's choosing.

Choosing Elective Adventures (pick at least 2)

Your Scout chooses at least 2 of these to round out the year. The den usually does a few of them together, and your Scout can add more for fun or to earn extra recognition:

Elective Adventures

Champions for Nature • Curiosity, Intrigue & Magical Mysteries • Designed by Tiger • Fish On • Floats & Boats • Good Knights • Let's Camp • Race Time • Rolling Tigers • Safe & Smart • Sky is the Limit • Stories in Shapes • Summertime Fun • Tech All Around • Tiger Tag • Tiger-iffic! • Tigers in the Water

Shooting Sports (Archery, BB Gun, Slingshot): optional electives that can only be earned at a council camp with certified instructors — not at regular pack meetings.

Year at a Glance — What to Plan For

Here's the quick summary of the bigger commitments across the 10-month scouting year (roughly September through June):

Overnights	None required to earn the badge. One optional overnight if your Scout picks the "Let's Camp" elective — the pack usually offers a family campout you can use.
Service project	One service project. No minimum hours. The pack organizes at least one each year.
Outdoor / hiking	One short nature walk, about 20 minutes.
Swimming & water	Optional only — the "Tigers in the Water" elective is gentle pool time with no swim test.
Shooting sports	Optional only — Archery, BB Gun, and Slingshot are available at council camps with certified instructors. They cannot be run by the pack alone.
Parent involvement	Required — a parent or adult partner attends den meetings and outings alongside your Tiger.

What We Need From You at Home

A few items are done at home with your Scout. Everything else happens at den and pack meetings:

- Complete the "How to Protect Your Children from Child Abuse: A Parent's Guide" booklet activities (part of Bobcat).
- Watch the Tiger Protect Yourself Rules video together.
- Talk about your family's faith traditions and attend a service or gathering.

Tips for a Great Year

- Come to den and pack meetings — that's where most adventures are earned.
- Watch for the pack calendar so you can plan around campouts, the Pinewood Derby, and service projects.

- Keep the handbook handy and celebrate each adventure as it's completed.
- Ask your den leader anytime you're unsure what's coming up next.
